

Get the comfort and security you deserve in your park home

At last! You're ready to make a lifestyle change as you move forward into your retirement years. You want to spend it in comfort and security. You also want a change. Something different. A place to live where you can relax and enjoy your surroundings, where all the worries of struggling financially wash away.

Welcome to residential park life! This is the answer to all your retirement and semi-retirement plans. Imagine it. Peace and quiet. Friendly communal living and people who share the same values, the perfect mix to ensure you enjoy your future to the full.

Homeseeker Park Homes specialises in superb park homes designed to meet your every need. All are double-glazed and made to the highest standards of workmanship. And all come fully-furnished with a range of style and equipment options to suit your individual tastes.

Choose the right park home for you

You can view our range online and browse through at your leisure; if you click on the smaller pictures we'll enlarge them for you. You can even visit each home by taking a 360° virtual tour giving you more insight and the feeling of standing in the room. Check out the floor plans for each home and choose the layout to suit you. If you want something different just give us a call.

Is there a residential park in the area you want to live?

Finding a park can be the toughest part of relocating and highlights areas of concern. For instance, is it a reputable park? When can you view it? Does it allow pets? Let us do the work for you, simply click on the brand new park locator service, choose a selection of parks in your desired area, email us and we will take it from there.

Are you asking the right questions?

To help you get it right first time, download your free impartial guide on choosing a park home. This guide will point you in the right direction when starting down the track of searching for a park and a home. It also gives you a handy 24 point check list to follow to ensure the park and the home meets your needs in your retirement.

There's a whole world of comfort and security out there waiting for you to enjoy. Why not browse our website then contact Homeseeker Park Homes and let us help you start your exciting journey into retirement?

If you would like to view our range of Luxury Leisure Lodges visit our leisure website for Advent Leisure Homes.

Plan your own home

Choose the home of your dreams, the layout you desire and the element that make up your perfect location...

Send it to us and we'll do the work for you

Start Now

Where do I start?

Click here to download the expert advice guides that give you the right start in looking for your perfect home >

Request a FREE Brochure >

Visit our Show Village >

Latest News, Exhibitions & Events >

Park Locator find a park for your home >